

I support satellite radio in their increasing role to provide us with weather and traffic news and information. I traveled across the US last dec and found the Weather information invaluable to help plan our trip and avoid blizzard condition arising in front of us and behind us as we travelled.